

EU Policies and Decision-Making

Final Dissertation Topics

1. European identity and diversity in times of global crisis
2. The President of the European Council – current and desirable relevance
3. HR/VP role as a binder between community and inter-governmental pillars
4. Efficiency versus democratic deficit brought by Lisbon Treaty through qualified majority voting
5. Co-decision and the power balance between European Parliament and the Council of the European Union
6. The most influential EU actors in decision-making
7. EU's visibility on the global stage after the Treaty of Lisbon
8. Main decision-making procedures and their influence on the EU policies
9. Common Foreign and Security Policy's current relevance
10. Common Foreign and Security Policy's future. Member States' ownership or an EU community policy?
11. Solidarity between Member States in the event of a terrorist attack or natural/man-made disaster.
12. Current challenges of the EU and the need for new policies

Conf. univ.dr.ing. Gheorghe Savu

01 Octombrie 2021

